Fire & Ice Chili Cook Off ; Saturday, February 16, 2019
Downtown Blue Ridge, Georgia

Rules and Information

3. Pre-registration is required for participation in this event. Registration form must be submitted with the $100.00 entry fee. Deadline for registrations is Monday, February 12, 2018
4. The event is open to the public from 11 am to 5 pm. All vendors must be set-up and ready to sell by 11 am. No booths can be dismantled before 5 pm.
5. All vendors are required to keep at least one attendant in their booth between 11 am and 5 pm .
6. Check in for registration is at 8:00 a.m. at the Headquarters Tent. Vendors may pull a vehicle into the festival grounds just long enough to unload. All vehicles must be removed from festival boundaries by 10am.
7. Vendors selling additional food products other than chili, must note those products on their application and be approved by the Blue Ridge Business Association. No beverage service is allowed without approval.
8. No cooking utensils, equipment or heating containers (i.e. gas fired cooking pot, grill, roaster etc.) will be provided.
9. Water is not available due to the location of the event. Please be prepared and bring your own water for cooking and cleaning.
10. Any vendor that requires electricity MUST request that in advance. This will affect our booth layout and our electrician needs to have this information in advance.

NOTE: All vendors are responsible for returning their booth space to pristine condition. After breakdown, a Business Association representative must inspect your site. If this is not done you will be invoiced $50 for clean up.

Neither the Blue Ridge Business Association nor the City of Blue Ridge will be responsible for any damages etc. to entrant's equipment or personnel while the event is being set-up, conducted or set-down. A liability release wavier must be signed on the day of the competition.
